INTRODUCTORY LETTER.

October 31, 1923.

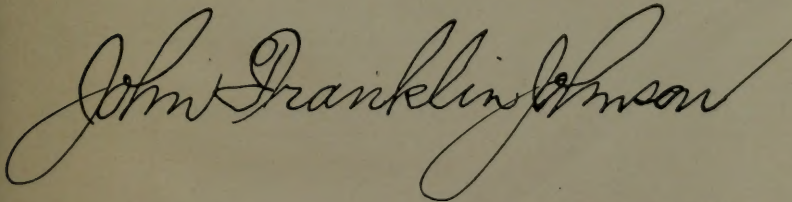

*His Excellency, FRIEND WM. RICHARDSON,
Governor of the State of California,
Sacramento, California.*

DEAR SIR: I am pleased to submit to you herewith, in accordance with section 140 of the Bank Act, the annual report of the Superintendent of Banks for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1923. This is the fourteenth annual report under the present law, and the first of the present Superintendent of Banks.

Appended hereto and made a part of this report are the following:

1. Summary of condition of every state bank.
2. List of new banks and branch offices.
3. Name and compensation of each person employed and the whole amount of receipts and disbursements of the department during the fiscal year.
4. Miscellaneous changes in banks.
5. Reports of deposits unclaimed for more than ten and twenty years.
6. Banks authorized to make collection of savings from school children.
7. Tabulated statement of condition of banks.

Yours very truly,

A large, elegant handwritten signature in dark ink, reading "John Franklin Johnson". The signature is written in a cursive style with long, sweeping flourishes, particularly on the first and last names.

Superintendent of Banks.
